

WALTER LUPI

Italian Acoustic Guitar Player

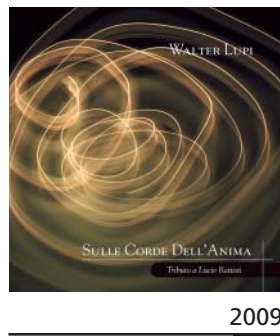

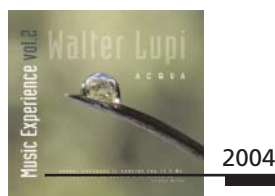

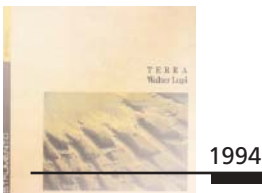

www.walterlupi.com

Refined guitarist with a classical background, well known in Italy and abroad, Walter Lupi is among the most creative acoustic guitar players and composers on the scene today able to drive on stage the audience through suggestive musical paths. Lupi's ability to create a rich sound and to alternate catchy and more elaborate melodies, born by an innate sense of stylistic evolution, provide a dynamic and full experience throughout all his shows.

With Short, Zumiè and Sulle corde dell'Aniam, Lupi is definitely placed on the International Fingerstyle scenery, sharing the stage with various school leaders of the six strings like John Rembourn, Alex De Grassi, Tim Sparks, Roland Dyens, Birèli Lagrène, Dominic Miller Stanley Giordan and many other.
